All Saints Generosity

Over summer there have been a couple of individual appeals which have once again demonstrated the generosity of the All Saints family.

~ Following Rick Hemmings highlighting the cause we have been able to send £1,000 to support the library project at the Lalo church in Ethiopia.

~ Jeff Turnbull challenged us to support poverty relief in Madagascar following his sermon on the subject and we are now able to send almost £3,500. We have agreed with Cathy Armstrong to give half to the World Food Programme's Southern Madagascar emergency appeal following a drought where 1.14 million are in need of emergency food assistance. The other half is being sent to the 'poor fund' at the hospital in Manditsara where Cathy sees how this helps families in need of food and clothing as well helping with funding long term medication and hospital bills.

Many thanks to all, Garnett 🙏🙏

GREETINGS CARDS for all occasions by Gill Holt.

We're excited to share with you some resources, forwarded on by one of our amazing church family members, Becky Walker! This October 31st, which is Halloween for most people, we, as followers of Jesus, want to celebrate that Jesus' light overcomes the darkness! Becky (and a few volunteers!) have made up some amazing light party packs for your household.
See these pics for what to expect!

These can be picked up at our 10:45am service on October 31st.
