We are however putting packs together for families to engage in light party material in their family settings.

If you would like a pack full of light party themed resources, please drop Gemma an email and she will arrange for one for you.

10:45AM SUNDAY WELCOME

We want to make people feel instantly at ease and part of the All Saints family. If you can offer a smile and a hello, we'd love to have you on team!

We are looking for people in the church family who can be ready to welcome on a Sunday at the 10.45am service on a 6 week rota.

If you are interested please drop Amy a line - amy.walker@allsaints.church

THANK YOU

Thank you to all who physically and mentally, helped me to try to attend the New Wine Worship Celebration last Sunday evening. Unfortunately facilities meant I couldn't stay but it was lovely to have so many of our church family helping in so many ways trying to make the evening inclusive. God bless you all, Maireanne

TEARFUND CARDS

Another £200 has been sent from the sale of cards in church. Thank you once again. Keep up the buying and help those in need. Gill Holt

ROOM TO LET

Room to let in a Christian home near the hospital. Private use of bathroom. 20 minute walk to the town centre. On regular bus route into Chester. £430 per month bills incl. Contact the church office for more details.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR CONTINUED SUPPORT FOR ALPHA

Thank you to those who have already blessed the leaders and guests on our Alpha course with the wonderful cakes and biscuits you have made.

Alpha will run until the 25th November so if you haven't already signed up to be on the 'baking blessings' rota, it's not too late!

If this is something you are able to help with, please speak to Gemma or email gemma.gaudion@allsaints.church.

ALL SAINTS BELL RINGING BAND

Ever wanted to ring the Church Bells? We are looking to form an All Saints Bell Ringing Band. If you are interested, please speak to Paul Treby.

COULD YOU VOLUNTEER AT HEART & SOUL CAFÉ?

Due to a couple of people having moved away or planning to move away in the future we have 2 vacancies for volunteers in the kitchen on Monday and Tuesday at Heart & Soul Café. This involves working with another team member making sandwiches, toasties, and baked potatoes etc. We also have a vacancy for someone to make drinks and serve on Tuesdays.

Please consider if you can help in this vital outreach work and join our friendly team of volunteers so that we can continue to make Heart & Soul Café a place where people from all walks of life find a warm welcome. Opening hours are 8.30am - 2.30pm but starting time can be later for these roles.

If you are interested why not call in and have a chat with Rhiannon, or email rhiannon.cooke@allsaints.church. Alternatively you could leave your details at the church office. We look forward to meeting you!

We are well into Autumn now and the year seems to be rattling past at a fair rate of knots, much in the way that narrowboats don't, 3.5 knots (4 mph) being the speed limit on most canals! You can't help but slow down a bit when you get on a narrowboat. If you haven't tried it, I do recommend having a go!

Back in the summer the Archbishop of York, Stephen Cottrell was in Nantwich whilst doing a tour of the Dioceses on his 'patch' and wanted to meet a Waterways Chaplain. I got the summons and met the AB at the Barbridge Inn, a canalside pub near Nantwich. I wasn't sure quite how to address him, but he emerged from the pub, beer in hand and said "Hello, I'm Stephen, you must be Jim", which helped! We had a good chat, in the company of my 'boss' Howie Pickering (the large biker chap some of you will remember from my commissioning service) and also Mark Tanner, Bishop of Chester (who told me he was on his best behaviour in the presence of his own boss!) The four of us were then filmed having a bit of a Q&A about the Chaplaincy and the video is available on link below. It is a bit embarrassing from my point of view, as it was all ad hoc with no warning or preparation and I talk too much, (Sorry, what was that you said?), but it does I think give quite a good insight into what the Waterways Chaplaincy is all about, so please feel free to have a watch and listen:-
<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=T15wHVv3teQ>

With Winter ahead, life for some liveaboard boaters on the canal will be difficult and, for those already facing issues of one sort or another, may become very difficult. That's where the Chaplaincy comes in, with our mission to get alongside and, if we can, to offer support and encouragement to all people, regardless of who they are, of all faiths and none.

Please continue to pray for me as I try to show kindness and compassion to those I meet and, sometimes, just to allow people to unburden themselves.

The Chaplaincy is currently part funded by Church Army, but needs to expand its funding base so as to become financially independent. If you would like to support the Chaplaincy financially do give me a call.

Finally, a reminder that I have a presentation on the work of the Chaplaincy which has been rolled out a few times now and seems to be quite well received, and which I am happy to offer to church groups, or any other groups you may be part of.

Jim Ellis
