Riding Lights / 'Home for Good' Play 'My Place' at St Michael's Church on Monday 16 May 7.30pm

'Home for Good', the adoption and fostering charity, is partnering with Riding Lights Theatre Company for this event which is part of an 8 week nationwide tour. 'My Place' follows the stories of four children in care: an individual child, a pair of siblings and an unaccompanied child refugee, all with different backgrounds and journeys, brought to life through a range of colourful story-telling techniques, including song and spoken word.

This event is for anyone (adult or teenager) who cares about children and is concerned for justice and compassion for our society's most vulnerable. (Not recommended for younger children.) Tickets can now be booked via the link below or from Sas McConville tel no: 07414 492244 who has tickets available (£10 conc/£8).

Hoole Church of England Primary School

A delegation of Hoole CE Primary School pupils were in action on Saturday 23rd April representing the school at the St. George's Day Parade in Chester city centre.

Pupils participated in the action using the props they had created during an art workshop with a local artist earlier in the week. The sun shone on the parade and children (and staff and parents!) thoroughly enjoyed marking this special day alongside members of the local community and friends from other schools.

We are also celebrating the success of three of our pupils in a local competition. Esmae, Lexa and Alice entered pictures into a competition organised by the Belong Group. The competition was to create a design to welcome new residents to local residential settings. We are excited to see the winning designs translated into plaques for display and welcome cards.

Thank you for your prayers and good wishes for our school family.
